INTRODUCTION

It is with great pleasure that I introduce Merlin's latest F.A. Premier League sticker collection - the only official sticker collection of the F.A. Premier League.

Having enjoyed a thrilling start to the new campaign, I'm sure you'll agree that the 2001/2002 season looks likely to be the most exciting yet. Not only have fans been treated to the glittering skills of such superstar signings as Juan Sebastián Veron and Giovanni Van Bronckhurst, but the continued growth of the Premiership's home-grown talents, like David Beckham, Sol Campbell and Steven Gerrard, has been a delight to watch too. With standards improving at every level throughout domestic football, from the impressive youth academies to the first teams, it is no surprise that the F.A. Premier League is considered among the best leagues in the world.

Just as the F.A. Premier League continues to improve so do Merlin's wonderful series of accompanying sticker collections and the latest edition is no exception. As you'd expect from a Merlin collection it is crammed with all the biggest stars, the most in-depth statistics and state-of-the-art design. This year there's also a very exciting change to look out for. For the first time ever each player portrait sticker features a genuine facsimile of their autograph - that's 360 superstar player signatures in total.

For football fans everywhere, there is no better way to follow the F.A. Premier League than with Merlin's 2002 sticker collection. So, no matter which team you support, good luck for the season ahead and enjoy the new collection.

Now in his fifth season as the Gunners manager, Arsène Wenger has led his north London team to a championship win and three consecutive second place league finishes during his time with Arsenal. ## THE VALLEY

TEAM

MANAGER

Alan Curbishley is one of English football's longest-serving managers and there's little doubt that Charlton have enjoyed the full benefit of his development as a coach. Curbishley is well regarded among his peers and must take a lot of the credit for Charlton's continued progression, with the Addicks now firmly established as a Premiership club.

CRAVEN COTTAGE

MANAGER

Jean Tigana successfully won promotion for Fulham in his first season at Craven Cottage and has wasted no time strengthening his squad in an effort to find Barclaycard Premiership stability. A typically methodical French coach, keen for his players to express themselves at Premiership level, Jean Tigana will encourage his squad to play the free-flowing football that has become their trademark.

PORTMAN ROAD

MANAGER

After George Burley's incredible managerial debut in the Barclaycard Premiership last season, there is now a queue of admirers keen to pick up on the Scotsman's unique style. A policy of uncomplicated, attractive, but highly effective football has served Burley and his players well as they've found their Premiership feet. He will be looking to build on last season's form after some key summer signings.

MERLIN'S SKILL ZONE

To become good enough to play in the Barclaycard Premiership takes time, practice and a lot of hard work on the training ground. Stars like David Beckham, Rio Ferdinand, Jimmy Floyd Hasselbaink and Michael Owen practice every day to improve their game and with the same dedication, and a little help from Merlin's Skill Zone, you too could one day play in the Premiership like your heroes.

David Beckham

CROSSING

A footballer with the ability to supply quality crosses to strikers is priceless in today's game.

PLAYER TO WATCH

England skipper David Beckham rarely needs to beat his man yet still has one of the highest assist rates in the Premiership.

MERLIN'S TOP TIP

Remember, you don't need to take a player on to deliver a cross. Strike the ball firmly and positively with the inside of your boot, as this is the most accurate part of the foot. Connect with the lower half of the ball to get the necessary height on the cross and don't forget to follow through.

Jimmy Floyd Hasselbaink

SHOOTING

Although most goals are scored from inside the penalty area, there's nothing more spectacular than smashing one past the keeper from outside the box.

PLAYER TO WATCH

Jimmy Floyd Hasselbaink generates power in his shooting that defies belief and many of his 23 Premiership goals were testament to his faultless technique.

MERLIN'S TOP TIP

Your non-kicking foot is extremely important when shooting. It should be placed alongside the ball to give you a firm balance and powerfully execute the shot. With the laces of your boot, strike the ball in the centre, keeping your head over it and remember to follow through with your kicking foot as the ball screams into the top corner!

Rio Ferdinand

HEADING

Whether its attacking or defending, heading is a fundamental part of the game and games can often be won or lost on a team's aerial ability

PLAYER TO WATCH

Although Rio Ferdinand has an incredible abundance of skill, it is his dominance with basic techniques such as heading, that has made the Leeds United rock one of the world's best defenders.

MERLIN'S TOP TIP

Always keep your eye on the ball and keep your mouth closed, or you could end up biting your tongue! Connect with the centre of the forehead, using the neck muscles for power and arms for balance if you're airborne. When defending, get slightly underneath the ball to direct the ball upwards and if you're attacking, time your jump to get over the ball and head it downwards, making it more difficult for the goalkeeper to save.

Michael Owen

PENALTY

The dreaded penalty is often the moment when you become either hero or villain, yet remains one of the most exciting elements of football, for the spectators at least!

PLAYER TO WATCH

When the pressure is on, Michael Owen is as reliable from the spot as anyone, having scored crucial penalties for Liverpool and England.

MERLIN'S TOP TIP

Although there are a number of techniques, the most trusted is to decide where you're going to put the ball early, never change your mind and strike the ball firmly with the inside of the boot, or if you are feeling confident, use the laces for extra power. If you are the goalkeeper, make yourself as big as possible to unnerve the kicker and keep your eye on the ball.

Advanced Skills

STEP-OVER OR 'LOLLYPOP'

Move one foot around the ball from the inside to the outside, then adjust your balance and take off in the opposite direction using the outside of your other foot to move the ball away from your opponent.

THE DRAG BACK

Place your foot on the ball and show it to your opponent to invite the tackle. As they lunge, pull the ball away with the sole of your boot and push yourself off in another direction - leaving the defender behind you.

THE SHIMMY OR FEINT

When approaching your opponent, drop your shoulder as if going to the left or right, but instead move the ball with the outside of your boot in the opposite direction and accelerate away.

JUGGLING

Practise keeping the ball off the floor by using both feet to kick it alternatively. As you improve try using other parts of your body like your head, thighs, and chest. Keep count of how many touches you make before the ball hits the floor and try to beat your record by practising regularly.

To master these skills takes a lot of practise, patience and of course a football! To help you improve your game, Merlin has teamed up with Hy-PRO to offer you some special training gear just like the professionals use at a special discount price for Merlin collectors. ### Welcome to the Merlin Mini sticker album.

Merlin, the publishers of the only official F.A. Premier League sticker collection, have teamed up with my friends at Walkers to bring you the ultimate guide to the Barclaycard Premiership's top stars. What's more, they've asked me, Gary Lineker, to help them out by picking four of the best from each club - that's 80 superstars in total.

I've seen some excellent footballers over the years and I've played with some great players too during my time with England and with clubs like Leicester, Everton, Tottenham and Barcelona, but choosing just eighty from the wealth of talent in the Premier League was really difficult.

After a lot of thought I finally made my choices and you can find out who they are simply by collecting the free Merlin Minis in promotional packs of Walkers Quavers, Monster Munch, French Fries, New Walkers Footballs and New Walkers 3D's. In lucky packs there are three stickers featuring one of the top stars I have selected. Walkers are giving away over 200 million stickers, so get collecting now!

Furthermore, in special Walkers Multipacks you can get two free standard Merlin stickers to help you complete your F.A. Premier League 2002 sticker album. Some of these stickers might even be shinies.

So, no matter which team you support, get your hands on a pack of Walkers snacks and in lucky packs you can check out the Premier League's top footballers while you're getting stuck into your favourite snacks.

The Transfer Desk

Welcome to Merlin's F.A. Premier League Transfer Desk. It's been a busy season for new signings already, Manchester United smashed the British transfer record twice with the arrival of Ruud van Nistelrooy and Juan Sebastián Veron, while elsewhere title-contenders Liverpool, Arsenal and Chelsea have all been busy adding to their squads for the new campaign. With more big moves expected, Merlin's Transfer Desk is the place to keep up with all the changes. Along with a table of the F.A. Premier League's record transfers, we've highlighted two recent big-name signings and left room for you to keep up-to-date with any transfers over the coming months.

Juan Sebastián Veron

The classy Argentine midfielder is among the best players in the world and will make United's midfield line-up the envy of clubs all over the world.

Frank Lampard

MANAGER

Recruited early on in the season, 'Harry' Basset is a vastly experienced manager who can boast previous spells with two Premiership clubs. Basset's plans have a long-term outlook with the appointment of assistant boss Micky Adams. The combination of Adams' coaching skills and Basset's motivational management should suit the Foxes well.

F.A. PREMIER LEAGUE HISTORY

2000/01 GOALSCORERS

ALSO: Hamann 2 (PL) + 1 (CUP), Berger 2 (PL), Ziege 1 (PL) + 1 (CUP), Litmanen 1 (PL) + 1 (CUP), Biscan 1.

MANAGER

Following the scale of last season's achievements, Gérard Houllier can now be talked about in the same breath as the band of legendary managers that preceded him. That in itself is a huge achievement and won't be taken lightly by the committed Frenchman, who will be desperate to add to the assembly of silverware he's already taken back to Anfield.

OLD TRAFFORD

MANAGER

In his last season as manager of the Premiership's defending champions, Sir Alex Ferguson will certainly want to leave his mark as the only manager in history to collect four league championships in a row. Big transfer fees were splashed out in the summer to ensure his side were as competitive as ever and there's little doubt that Ferguson's men are once again the team to beat.

MANAGER

Steve McLaren's move from Old Trafford surprised a few people, but Manchester United's former coach is keen to show he can handle the demands of management and jumped at Boro's invitation to take charge at the Riverside. McLaren's coaching skills are well renowned and he'll want to prove that his management skills are just as impressive as his work on the training pitch.

WHITE HART LANE

MANAGER

As one of Tottenham's favourite sons, Glenn Hoddle is a popular managerial choice among Spurs supporters who hope he can bring the glory days back to White Hart Lane. Hoddle is among the game's finest coaches and with a clutch of intelligent signings during the summer to add to a burgeoning squad of young players, his plans for Spurs' return to the upper regions of the Barclaycard Premiership are quite clear.
